KOREAN AIR VET TO SPEAK HERE

To increase interest in flying among Air Force ROTC students at Gettysburg College, First Lt. William H. Gallup Jr., South Norfolk, Va., will be on campus February 26 and 27. He is one of 18 Korean Air War veteran pilots who are visiting AFROTC detachments in all parts of the United States, according to Brigadier General M. K. Deichelmann, AFROTC commandant.

The young pilot will conduct informal talks during class periods telling of his experiences while in flight training and describe his present flying status. Primarily a jet fighter pilot, he flew every type of plane the United States has in Korea except the B-29.

Reason for the personal visits was explained by General Deichelmann who emphasized that, due to Air Force requirements, the majority of the future AFROTC graduates should put in for flight training upon entering active duty. "Last year only 12 per cent of our graduates took flight training upon graduation," he said. "This year we have high hopes of raising this percentage considerably."

Fully briefed prior to leaving for the colleges by Colonel Roy Hillyer and others of the headquarters staff, the pilots will cover in their talks such subjects as status as a student officer, advantages in an Air Force career, flying school, their Korean experiences and other topics designed to increase interest in flying.

PUC Fixes Mar. 10 For Bus Fare Hearing

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Public Utility Commission today fixed March 10 for a hearing here on a proposed $8,200 a year fare increase for the Hanover-McSherrystown Bus Co., Hanover.

The firm operates between Hanover, Brushtown and New Oxford in York and Adams Counties.

Red Legation In Israel Closed

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—The Red flag over the Soviet legation came down today. The last Russian diplomat departed for Moscow and the break between Israel and the USSR become complete.

Pavel Yershov, the Soviet minister, departed with a clerk, who carried the brass plate from the legation's door. They set off in a seven-car convoy for Haifa to board a ship for home. Other members of the legation staff and their families—54 all told—were already abroad. The vessel, the Kedesh of Turkish registry, sails for Istanbul tonight.

In the convoy with Yershoff was Bulgarian Minister Georgi K. Bodanoff, whose legation notified Israel. There also were two cars full of Israeli police.

Moscow severed diplomatic relations with Israel last week after the Soviet legation here was bombed on Feb. 9.

FRUITMEN TO TAKE PART IN STATE SURVEY

Adams County's approximately 550 fruit growers will be asked early in March to report on their orchards for a statewide cooperative survey of the number of apple, peach and sour cherry trees in Pennsylvania.

The count of the trees, the first to be made in the state in 33 years, is being carried out by the Agriculture Extension Service of the Pennsylvania State College, the Bureau of Markets of the State Department of Agriculture and the Pennsylvania Federal-State Crop Reporting Service.

State Secretary of Agriculture Miles Horst said the count is designed to obtain facts covering the recent rapidly changing conditions in the industry and added that the census has the support of the State Horticultural Association.

Number, Age, Variety

Only commercial orchards, those with 100 or more trees, will be included in the inventory. In addition to the number and age of apple and peach trees, a record of the varieties will be compiled as a step towards aiding growers in meeting consumer variety demands.

The census should give a definitive answer to estimates that the number of trees producing cherries has doubled, with a crop expected this year twice the size of last year's, if all conditions are normal. It will also indicate just how great a concentration of orchards is confined to the south central part of the state. State officials estimate that there are betwen 2,000 and 3,000 commercial apple, peach and sour cherry orchards in the state.

County Agent M T. Hartman estimates that between 500 and 600 orchards exist in Adams County. He bases his estimate on the 550 persons who receive the apple and peach spray letters sent out by his office, and the 315 who receive the cherry letters.

MOOSE LODGE NOMINATING GROUP NAMED

Members of a nominating committee were selected Thursday evening by Governor Robert Neary at the regular meeting of the local Moose Lodge at its home on York St.

Following custom, the committee consists of five members from the lodge at large, Irvin Seilheimer, John Fry, Allen Harmon, Jacob Small and Howard Kitzmiller; the five immediate past governors, C. Lester Oyler, Clifford Harmon, Stephen Smith, Daniel Miller and Paul Miller, and the elected officers of the lodge, Governor Neary, Junior Governor Russell Mummert, Prelate Nevin Bush, Secretary Charles Lauver, Treasurer George March and Trustees Donald McSherry, Donald Baker and Clifford Harmon.

The committee will meet in March to draw up a list of candidates for the various offices of the lodge.

11 Members Added

Governor Neary extended the congratulations of the local lodge to the Waynesboro Moose Lodge which is celebrating its fifth anniversary this year. The Gettysburg lodge described as "in a sense a foster" of the Waynesboro lodge because many of the men who organized the Waynesboro group had become "Moose-minded" through membership in the Gettysburg lodge.

Neary reported "excellent response" to the program "Syncopated Serenade" being presented by Howard Sheets each Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock over WGET direct from the Moose home under sponsorship of the lodge. Sheets plays the organ at the Moose home during the program and has been receiving "quite a large number of requests for special numbers," Neary said.

Seven new members were accepted into the lodge and four were reinstated, as part of the current Anniversary membership drive which is featured by a special effort to bring former members back into the organization. The special reinstatement campaign is being conducted from February 15 to March 15.

This Is Season For Grim Outlook; It's Budget Time

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is the season when the picture turns grim and things are in a hell of a fix.

It is the time when each of the armed forces tells how good it is.

And it is, perchance, the time of budget-making. It happens every year, in peace and war, in every administration.

Some years there are mysterious rumors of foreign submarines cruising off American shores. Other years there are vapor trails from highflying, unseen, unknown aircraft above the northern defense perimeter. And some years people just sit down and add up all the military and diplomatic perplexities and intelligence estimates and come up with a broad and brooding and black picture.

Only yesterday a group of congressional leaders emerged from a White House session with military, intelligence and national security council officials—speaking cryptically but apprehensively of the briefing they had. It was nothing new, they said—the picture has been grim for a long time.

The congressional leaders then went to the Capitol where Congress is going to work on the budget.

Across the Potomac at the Pentagon the armed forces seemed to hear no unusually loud alarms from around the world but maybe that is just because they are used to the grimness of the times.

Navy Pilots Safe

And perhaps each service wanted to guard against too-deep cuts in its budget this year. At any rate—

The Navy announced it had developed a fully pressurized flying suit which would allow "Navy pilots" (the press release didn't say why other pilots couldn't wear it too) to "travel in safety in the extreme upper atmosphere — or even in outer space."

The Army, perhaps not wanting to be overlooked when ideas about rocket-age arsenals were being circulated, came up with a summary of its program in the guided missile field announcing:

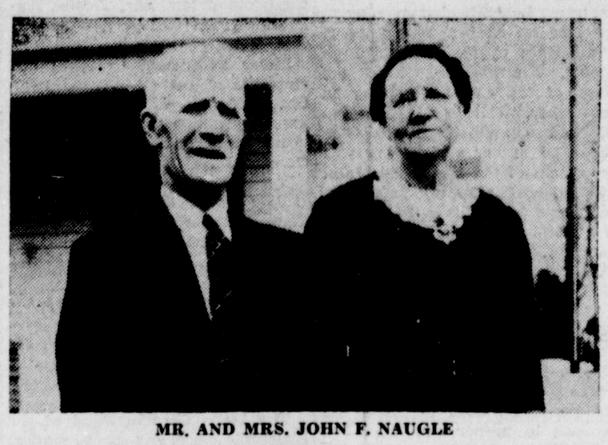

Anti-Aircraft Marvel

"The Army now has weapons that aim themselves after the trigger is pulled—and it is almost impossible for them to miss a target. . . . Fantastic though it may seem, one of the Army's surface-to-air missiles . . . carries a guidance system designed to out-maneuver and hit enemy aircraft."

The enemy plane, said the Army, may "dive, climb, bank, side-slip or turn tail—but the Army's new weapons still will knock them out of the skies."

The Army's account came out late in the day. Presumably there wasn't time left for the Navy or Air Force to get out reports on their fantastic robot weapons.

Processors Say No Price Fixing

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Attorneys for five apple processing companies argued Thursday there was keen competition instead of price fixing in the buying of raw apples in the Appalachian area.

The arguments were presented in briefs filed with the Federal Trade Commission to support a motion to dismiss a price fixing complaint. The government complaint also charged growers and processors with attempting to maintain price levels by diverting the flow of apples to markets.

The brief for the Knouse Food Coop, Inc., Peach Glen, Pa. said "There was no agreed price for the reason that they, the processors, constantly 'dickered' for different prices at different times and generally received such different prices."

"Sure It's A Six-Gun!"

BRIDGEPORT, Pa. (AP)—It isn't often that an eight-year-old gets a phone call. But when the caller is Gene Autry, nationally known cowboy movie star, well it's no wonder Joseph Iacovetti beamed happily in his aunt's home here yesterday.

The youngster's neck is still encased in a brace and his head is swathed in bandages — grim reminders of a plane crash near Tacoma, Wash., last November which took the lives of his father, mother, sister and two brothers.

When the phone jangled, Joe answered excitedly—as what eight-year-old wouldn't—"yes, this is Joe."

Autry, calling from Albany, N.Y., told Joe he had mailed a complete cowboy outfit and asked the youth to be his guest when he brings his show to the Philadelphia Arena next Friday.

And what's more, young Joe was assured he could ride Little Champ, one of Gene's horses, at the show.

The youngster then whipped out a cap pistol and fired it into the air. "D'ya know what that was, Gene?" he asked.

"Sure, it was a six-gun," Autry replied.

Then, satisfied he had been talking to an authority, Joe said thanks and good-by.

SEEKING SCHOOL BUS WITH TEN KIDS; LOST IN COLO. BLIZZARD

DENVER (AP)—A radio report to the Sterling, Colo., police station early this morning said that nine school children missing since yesterday in the snow-locked Northern Colorado had been found safe and unharmed at a farm house.

Sheriff E. M. Brown who led a search party into the area radioed that the children and the bus driver were eating bacon and eggs at the Merle Carey farm, 12 miles northwest of Sterling, when found. They had spent the night at the farm.

DENVER (AP)—A search resumed today for a school bus missing with 10 to 17 children aboard in the midst of a two-day-old blizzard rampaging across Colorado and Wyoming and heading into the Midwest.

Sheriff E. M. Brown said the school bus left Sterling, in Northern Colorado, in the early afternoon yesterday bound for the Mt. Hope area, a small section of widely scattered farm houses.

Deaths of three persons were blamed on the storm, which pushed its way into the area Wednesday with winds that reached 65 miles an hour.

Worst Since '49

The U. S. Weather Bureau here said there had been greater snow depths but not as much sustained wind with a snow storm in the region since the big one in 1949, which took 17 lives in five days.

Whistling along the eastern slope of the Rockies, this storm shucked off 12 inches of new snow at Cheyenne and nine inches at Denver.

Wheatland, in the central part of Wyoming, got 13 inches of new snow which, added to some already on the ground, made a total of 19 inches. Most snow depths in the area were two to six inches.

All Traffic Slowed

Auto and air traffic was slowed to a crawl, if not halted; power and telephone lines were blocked out; and many rural and small community schools were closed.

The weather watchers said the snow would begin to thin out this morning but that the winds would last throughout the day.

Although temperatures were below freezing, they were not subzero nor what the Weather Bureau would term "extreme."

Storm warnings went out to Minnesota and northern sections of Wisconsin and Michigan last night as they appeared in the path of the storm, which erupted from the meeting of Canadian and Pacific fronts. Earlier, 40-mile-an-hour winds had blasted both Southern California and the Texas Panhandle.

CANADA DROPS TAXES; 11 PCT. INCOME TAX CUT

OTTAWA (AP)—Canada's government announced a new budget last night to cut taxes an estimated 361 million dolars in 1954. It included an 11 per cent drop in the income tax and reduction in corporation levies.

The new program also:

1. Reduced the cost of legal cigarets to 35 cents a pack by lopping four cents off the federal take immediately.

2. Eliminated a 10 per cent sales tax on newsprint for domestic consumers only (no help for U. S. papers).

Most War Taxes Gone

3. Removed radio license fees.

4. Trimmed an estimated one million dollars a year in import tariffs on manufactured articles, most of them bought from the United States.

The income tax cut is effective July 1. With that, it was estimated, approximately two-thirds of the Canadian taxes imposed following the outbreak of the Korean War in 1950 will have been removed. Other reductions are effective prior to July, some as far back as Jan. 1.

Pre-Election Budget

Finance Minister Douglas Abbott announced the changes in a House of Commons speech on the 1953-54 budget. Political observers said it was a typical pre-election budget.

No date has yet been set for the national elections but it is generally believed that Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent will call them for next August or October, with Oct. 5 frequently mentioned as a likely day.

The budget predicted the government, in the fiscal year beginning April 1, would spend $4,462,000,000, including just over two billion dollars for defense. Income was estimated at a record $4,473,000,000 which would leave a surplus of 11 million dollars—and result in Canada's eighth successive revenue excess.

Bucknell Opponent Of Bullet Cagers Here Saturday Night; Matmen Meet Hofstra At 2:30

A revival of the defense tactics which made Gettysburg College basketball teams so potent in past years is again paying dividends and the Bullets will undoubtedly stick to that form of play when they meet the Bucknell Bisons here Saturday evening.

After his team became emeshed in the throes of a losing streak which resulted in seven setbacks in eight starts, Coach "Hen" Bream decided to re-adopt deliberate possession ball, stressing defense, and victories over Lehigh and Dickinson were forthcoming.

Against Dickinson at Carlisle Wednesday evening the Bullet victory was marked by outstanding defensive work throughout which seldom permitted the taller Red Devils to secure clean shots at the hoop. Two straight victories have hiked Gettysburg's record to 10-7 with five tilts remaining.

Bucknell, coached by Ben Kribbs, former Waynesboro High mentor, has a comparatively inexperienced outfit this season which has dropped 11 while winning but two. Early in January the Bullets gained a 79-58 win at Lewisburg when the locals were on their seven-game winning streak.

There are but two lettermen on the Bison squad, Jim Poff, 6-3, and Ron Reichman, 6-2. Tallest men on the squad are Barry Parker, a junior, and Carl Kapp, sophomore, both of whom go 6-4.

The Bisons have been improving steadily and come here with hopes high of staging an upset.

Frosh In Preliminary

As a preliminary game the Gettysburg College frosh will play a return tilt with St. Francis of Spring Grove at 7 o'clock. The yearlings, who have won five of six, defeated the prepsters two weeks ago at Spring Grove.

Two other college teams have engagements scheduled for here Saturday.

At 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon Jack Shainline's Bullet grapplers will clash with Hofstra of Long Island.

The Bullets copped four meets in a row until stopped by Franklin and Marshall here Wednesday evening. They are determined to get back into the win column but may encounter trouble from the reputedly strong Hofstra matmen.

Jim Lentz's swimming team will be host to Georgetown University in the local tank at 2:30 p.m. The Bullets, who are definitely undermanned and may be without the services of their ace, Bryant Heston, have dropped three dual meets. Heston has been ill due to grip and missed the F. and M. engagement Wednesday.

O'BRIEN TOPS CAGE SCORERS

NEW YORK (AP)—Little Johnny O'Brien of Seattle, the small college national basketball scoring champion last year, may have this year's major college title all wrapped up after his 51 point outburst against Gonzaga Sunday night.

The 5-9 pivotman from South Amboy, N. J., brought his season average to 28.5 points a game for 23 games according to statistics released Thursday by the NCAA Service Bureau and opened up a sizeable gap over his nearest pursuers—Frank Selvy fo Furman, Ernie Beck of Pennsylvania and Walt Dukes of Seton Hall.

Scored 1,051 In 1951

Seattle was classed among the small colleges last year when O'Brien became the first collegian to score 1,000 points in a single season. He ended the 1951-52 year with 1,051 points, averaging 28.4 per game for 37 games. This season the NCAA ruled Seattle a major college because of its schedule.

Selvy, who got into the tightest race in statistical history only in the last couple of weeks, had 27.9, Beck 27.1 and Dukes 27.0 in games through Tuesday.

MARTIN AGREES TO A'S TERMS

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Morrie Martin, 30 year old southpaw hurler who broke the middle finger of his pitching hand last May, has agreed to terms, Art Ehlers, general manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, has announced.

Ehlers said yesterday Martin cannot formally join the club yet because when he broke his finger it failed to knit properly and he voluntarily went on the retired list.

According to the rules a player must remain on the list at least 60 days, which means two months of the regular season. Martin's time will not be up until 13 days after the opener at New York on April 14. The club can then sign him to a contract.

Major league hurlers will get down to serious spring training business in a couple of days but so far the pitch is the usual "I'm gonna have a great year."

Russ Meyer, acquired by the Brooklyn Dodgers in a four-club, five-player transaction earlier this week, reported to the Brooks' camp at Vero Beach, Fla., yesterday and promptly predicted he'd help the Dodgers gain their second straight National League pennant.

"If I pitch the type of ball I did last season," he said after signing his 1953 contract, "I have a good chance of winning 20 games."

Big Year For Porterfield

Russ posted a mediocre 13-14 slate in 1952 with the Philadelphia Phillies but his record was dipped in hard luck. He lost six times by one run and in three other of his games the Phillies were blanked.

Washington's Bob Porterfield, another tough luck moundsman, declared at Orlando, Fla., "I'm going to come up with a really big year and kill the idea that I'm jinxed."

The 28-year-old pitcher has been the victim of a broken finger, a line drive which creased his skull and another liner which hit his leg and kept him out of action a month.

Best Tigers Twirlers

At Tampa, Detroit Manager Freddie Hutchinson said the Tigers' pitching staff will be the best in the American League this season. The Bengals finished in the cellar in 1952.

Art Houtteman, Ned Garver, Ted Gray, Hal Newhouser, Bill Wight and young Bill Hoeft form the nucleus of the Tiger mound corps.

"Show me another club that is as deep in pitching as we are," Hutchinson said. No one answered.

Giants Optimistic

Optimism also was the order of the day at the quarters of the New York Giants at Phoenix, Ariz., where in the absence of President Horace Stoneham and Manager Leo Durocher, Promotional Director Garry Schumacher had nothing but kind words for Frank Hiller and Ruben Gomez, two new hurling acquisitions. Hiller was obtained from Cincinnati during the winter and Gomez, a Puerto Rican winter league sensation, was signed last month.

Manager Jimmy Dykes of the Philadelphia Ahtletics was wrestling with another type of pitching problem at West Palm Beach. Dykes intends to carry 11 flingers during the campaign, which means he must whittle seven off the list of 18. Bobby Shantz, for one, is sure of a job, he said. That probably is the No. 1 understatement of the year.

The hurlers weren't the only ones in the news.

Only "Red" Is Sure

Cardinal shortstop Solly Hemus, who batted .268 and hit 15 homers in 1952, may have to hustle to keep his job, Manager Eddie Stanky indicated.

"Red Schoendienst (second baseman) is sure of an infield spot," Stanky said, later mentioning Walt Lammers, up from Columbus, as possible competition for Hemus.

Minnesota Opposes Rose Bowl Games

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The University of Minnesota, as expected, has voted against renewal of the Big Ten-Pacific Coast Conference Rose Bowl football pact.

The university senate, the school's governing body made up of top level faculty and administration members, yesterday cast a negative vote on the proposal. It was the first Big Ten school to take an official positive stand and reaffirmed the university's position on post-season games

Unbeaten Hanover Junior Hi Quint Here This Evening

The final Junior High basketball game of the season will be staged here this evening when Coach Rogers Herr's lads meet the undefeated Hanover Falcons.

Victors in 20 straight games in a streak extending into last season, the Falcons are heralded as one of the best junior high teams to be produced in this area for many seasons. Ten of their victories were recorded this year.

Gettysburg, with a 9-3 mark, ends its campaign at Chambersburg next Tuesday.

Tonight at 6:45 o'clock the junior high reserve teams meet.

Pick "Gettysburg Little League" As Name For Local Boys' Loop; Charles A. Smith Is President

Adoption of the name "Gettysburg Little League" and election of officers highlighted a meeting Thursday evening at Gettysburg High School as machinery began to take form for the conducting of Little League baseball here this year.

Charles A. Smith, of the Lions Club, was elected as the first president; Richard Altemose, of the Glenn L. Bream Garage, vice president; Michael Tate, Moose, treasurer, and Attorney John MacPhail, Rotary Club, secretary. Ira Kerr, Recreation director, was named as the player agent.

Two representatives from each team's sponsors, known as commissioners, and the four coaches will make up the board of directors of the league. These include the following: Lions Club, Edward J. Nowicki and Smith; Rotary, Stanley Hull and MacPhail; Bream's Garage, Attorney S. M. Raffensperger and Altemose; Moose, Tate and Ralph Johnson. Only two coaches have been named thus far, Richard E. Dreas, Rotary, and John Long, Lions. Coaches for the Moose and Bream Garage are yet to be chosen after which they will join to complete the board of directors.

President Smith made the following committee appointments: Equipment, Kerr, chairman, Johnson and Dreas; Umpires, Tate, chairman, Hull and Altemose; Constitution, Nowicki, chairman, and coaches of the Bream Garage and Moose; Finance, Raffensperger and Long. Don Bream was named as publicity agent.

All rules and regulations of Little League play as outlined here recently by Carl E. Stotz, Williamsport, state commissioner, were adopted.

In the near future representatives will appear before the Recreation Board to secure permission to play games on the softball field. They will also make similar application to the Softball League in working out non-conflicting schedules.

All sponsors of teams will pay for the uniforms of their teams. However, each will make contributions into a general pool and all equipment becomes the property of the league.

Another meeting has been scheduled for Thursday evening, March 19, at the fire engine house.

HORNETS TIE BARON SKATERS

By The Associated Press

Followers of the defending champion Pittsburgh Hornets were buzzing about the brilliant efforts of veteran right wing Andy Barbe today.

The 29-year-old Barbe, in his fourth season with Pittsburgh scored two goals and an assist last night to lead the Hornets to a 4-3 victory over the Providence Reds. The win lifted Pittsburgh into a first place tie with the idle Cleveland Barons.

In the only other AHL game, the St. Louis Flyers moved into a fourth place tie with Syracuse by walloping the Buffalo Bisons, 10-4. Barbe's second goal at 5:05 of the final period was the vital tally. He banged the disc into the cage off Zellio Toppazzini's stick while the Providence player cut in front of his own nets.

It was a 1-1 affair after the first period but the Hornets scored twice within 79 seconds in the second period to take a lead they never relinquished.

At St. Louis, the Flyers trailed, 3-1, in the second stanza but exploded for three goals in as many minutes and went on to roll up their highest goal total of the season. Lou Jankowski and Ken Hayden scored twice for St. Louis.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS

MINNEAPOLIS—Corky Gonzales, 129½, Denver, outpointed Glen Flanagan, 128, St. Paul, 10.

NEWARK, N. J. — Sampson Powell, 160, Detroit, knocked out Leroy Coleman, 159, Lodi, N. J. 4.

FRESNO, Calif.—Sal Flores, 164, Los Angeles, knocked out Sonny Green, 153, New York, 2.

Three School Fives Need Victory To Enter Playoffs

By DICK HOENIG

HARRISBURG (AP) — Victory tonight will propel three more schoolboy basketball fives into the Class A state playoffs as 1953 conference champions.

Ashland, Ashley and both Norristown and Haverford are bidding to join three league winners already qualified for berths in next month's PIAA grind.

Ashland can take its second straight North Schuylkill flag by defeating Frackville for win No. 8 of the second half. The Black Diamonds won the first round so can take season honors by copping their final league encounter.

Ashley, currently leading defending North League and District 2 champ Swoyersville by three full games, can wrap up the circuit title with a decision over Fairview. After tonight there are only two games left. Ashley is 12-0 and Swoyersville 9-3, all the losses having been inflicted by Ashley.

Feature Attraction

The battle of the night shapes up as the Haverford-Norristown scrap at Haverford for the Suburban Philadelphia Section 1 crown. Both have 10-1 league marks and this is the finale. Haverford won the first meeting between the two—by a single point. Haverford has lost only once this season, Norristown twice.

Already safely home with league buntings are Coal Township of the Keystone Circuit in District 4, Johnstown, the new Tri-County ruler of District 6; and Erie Tech, repeat winner in Section 1 of District 10.

Johnstown clinched the Tri-County Tuesday by downing Ferndale for a 10-0 log. Westmont, 1952 champ of the circuit and district, has lost three of 11, two to Johnstown. Johnstown will open the District 6 playoffs March 11 against Altoona, if Altoona qualifies by winning its last two games.

Wins Third Title

Erie Tech took care of Erie East, its closest competitior, Tuesday to wrap up the section race for the third consecutive year. Tech will play the Section 3 victor in the first district playoff round. The Section 2 winner, to be decided next week most likely when Oil City plays Meadville, draws an initial bye.

The vast Pittsburgh area WPIAL closed out the 1952 season Tuesday with Homestead (Section 6), Braddock (7), Monaca (8), West View (9), Hurst (10), and German Township (11), being added to the list of Class A sectional winners Vandergrift plays Springdale tomorrow for the Section 12 title. The league playoffs get underway at the same time with the final set for March 12 at Pitt Field House.

The WPIAL results mean that a new Class B as well as Class A state titlist will be crowned at the end of March. Farrell, the defending Class A winner, lost out in the Section 3 race to Sharon earlier and Bellevue copped Section 2 honors to freeze out defending state Class B king Avalon.

This next to last week of the regular conference campaign easily rated the title upset week of 1953 on the basis of Tuesday's results alone.

The longest Class A all-winning streak of the state, held by Berlin-Somerset County, District 5, was smashed by Somerset. The result means that Berlin must beat Dowell tonight to tie Somerset and cause a playoff for the District 5 championship.

The state's only other Class A team not to lose a game, Hollidaysburg, just escaped a similar fate. The Central Mountain League power slipped past Philipsburg, 47-46, for No. 14.

Pottstown handed defending Eastern titlist Coatesville its second setback of the campaign Tuesday and a 17-point loss at that. In another big upset, Old Forge dropped its first Lackawanna League decision in 40 starts over a three year period. Scranton Central turned the trick Wednesday, 53-52, to take over the second half lead of the league.

Other Favorites

And Farrell, the deposed Class A king, reversed an earlier decision by overturning Sharon, the Section 3 winner of the WPIAL. Farrell won by seven points while Sharon had only beaten the Steelers by one.

PCIAA favorites nearing playoff time seem to be Harrisburg, Allentown and Scranton Prep in the East and Johnstown, Pittsburgh Central and North and Erie Cathedral Prep in the West. The best bet for Class B honors looks like Bethlehem Catholic in the East and St. Catherines of Dubois, Greenville St. Michaels and St. Casimirs of Pittsburgh in the West.

ST. LOUIS BEATS NYU BUT MAY NOT TAKE NIT OFFER

NEW YORK (AP) —The National Invitation Basketball Tournament, which lost greatly desired Seattle to the NCAA, may lose equally sought after St. Louis to the classrooms.

St. Louis, tremendously popular with the New York fans, virtually wrote its own invitation to the NIT last night by swamping New York University, 98-78, at Madison Square Garden. But St. Louis Coach Eddie Hickey said he was doubtful that a bid could be accepted.

"We've missed an awful lot of school on this road trip," Hickey said. The team has been away from St. Louis since last Friday and won't get home until Sunday.

Won NIT in '47

"It will be up to the university authorities," the coach continued, "and they may think another trip back here would be too much."

Hickey admitted he would like to come to the NIT.

"After all," he said, "New York is the Billikins' second home."

St. Louis won the NIT in 1947 and has played in it three times since then, including last year.

Have Four Teams

The NIT, which opens March 7, has corraled four of its needed dozen teams—unbeaten Seton Hall, ranked No. 1 nationally in the Associated Press poll; fourth-ranking LaSalle; ninth-ranking Western Kentucky; and Manhattan College of New York, No. 13 in the poll.

Manhattan came in yesterday just after Seattle, which had received an invitation, cast its lot with the NCAA. Seattle is hoping for a chance to play the University of Washington in the Western NCAA Regional Tournament, but it will have to get by a first round game with Idaho State to stay in the running.

CANNERS TAKES JR. HI CONTEST

Biglerville Junior High won its fourth straight basketball game by easily defeating Boiling Springs 34-12 Thursday at Boiling Springs. The triumph gives the Canners seven wins in nine starts.

The upper countians will conclude their season next week with two home games, meeting York Springs Wednesday afternoon and East Berlin Friday afternoon.

Vollmer, Wilson Sign Bo-Sox Pact

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox today announced the signing of outfielders Clyde Vollmer and Archie Wilson and the fact that only four of the 37 players on their spring training roster have failed to come to terms.

Still outside the fold are versatile infielder Billy Goodman, pitchers Maury McDermott and Sid Hudson and catcher Gus Niarhos.

The Boston Braves management reported that outfielder Bill Bruton was the 27th of its 40 players to return a signed contract.

Ivy League Bans Spring Practice

NEW YORK (AP)—Ivy League football teams again will have to wait until Sept. 1 before getting into shape for the 1953 grid season.

A brief announcement from Columbia yesterday disclosed that at a recent meeting the presidents of the eight Ivy League schools decided to continue the ban on spring practice started last year.

The heads of the Ivy group also reaffirmed the present policy of barring athletes from participation in post-season charity games. The Ivy schools also ban participation in bowl games.

4 INTERSTATE CLUBS CONSIDER 4 TEAM LOOP

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Although the Interstate Baseball League was publicly disbanded two weeks ago, representatives of four 1952 teams got togethr here today to "discuss the situation for 1953."

Expected for the meeting were men from Lancaster, Sunbury, and Allentown, Pa., and Salisbury, Md., clubs that made up half of last season's lineup in the Class B circuit.

Two of last year's clubs—York, Pa., and Hagerstown, Md.—were admitted to the Class B Piedmont League of Virginia last week. A seventh franchise, once the property of Harrisburg, Pa., is in the hands of league directors and the eighth 1952 franchise is technically in the possession of Ed Kirschner, Hazleton, Pa.

Organization Failed

The 14-year-old Interstate threw in the towel two weeks ago tonight at Allentown, Pa., after six organizational meetings since November, 1952, failed to produce either an eight or six team league for this summer.

Gerald P. Nugent of Philadelphia, president of the defunct league, said at the time, it was not just a disbandment for one year.

"I doubt very much whether this league ever will be revived. The territory is too close to major league ball parks and television from those ballparks. Television has helped to kill off this league just as it did to others," Nugent asserted, following an unsuccessful effort to get Allentown as the sixth 1953 entry.

Before today's meeting got underway Frank Spair, Lancaster business manager, said the conference was arranged to hear what progress the four involved teams have made in recent weeks toward operating as a four-team league this season.

Of the four teams involved, Lancaster was the only club besides Allentown to have a major league working agreement last year (Cleveland).

J. "Fakir" James, Promoter, Expires

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—John T. "Fakir" James, familiar figure in state boxing circles and old time Pennsylvania boxing manager and promoter, died Wednesday following a heart attack.

Sometimes called the "Sage of Old Shawnee," the 80-year-old veteran of the ring world was born at Plymouth, Pa., near Shawnee on the Delaware, a Pocono Mountain resort.

As a boy James worked in the coal mines of his native Eastern Pennsylvania. He moved to the capital city 14 years ago.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Eden Quits Cabinet: London, Feb. 21 (AP)—Anthony Eden told a packed breathless House of Commons today he had resigned as foreign secretary rather than deal with Italy in the face of Premier Mussolini's "rife, hostile propaganda" against Britain and Il Duce's "glorifications" of victories in Spain.

"Agreements that are worthwhile are never made on the basis of threats," he cried.

Cheered repeatedly both from the labor benches and some sections of the government supporters, Eden declared frankly that this was an occasion when "strong political convictions must override all other considerations."

"No man can be the keeper of another man's conscience," he said.

Today's Talk

THE FRIENDSHIP GARDEN

I can understand why it is that people love gardens as they do. I have talked with gardeners as they have worked among their flowers and noted the love that they seemed to put into all they did. I have even heard them personalize different shrubs and flowers. And with what care they water and weed and fertilize the soil so as to make each flower smile its loveliest.

The late Dr. George Washington Carver is said to have talked with flowers, and he often wore them as a token of his friendship. The language of flowers in not only a silent one, but a universal one that we all can interpret and understand. Flowers talk to us in joy and sorrow.

How beautiful it is to look upon our friends as one great garden of flowers. Varieties of every species. Colorful, fragrant, exquisite in character. We have to care for this garden, however, if we wish to keep it alive and flourishing. We have to water our friendships with love and devotion, fertilize that friendship garden with acts of remembrance and consideration This garden will lose its beauty and weeds will grow in it, and it will finally wither away if given no love or care.

Where are our friends of yesteryear? Those with whom we talked and associated, and from whom we gained so much joy and satisfaction. It has been said that friendships need to be kept in constant repair, which is very true. They must be watered, too, the same as we water the flower garden. Nothing in this world is so important, for one's gayety of mind, as a garden of friends to which we may go at will for comfort and guidance, when the years lengthen and burdens press heavily.

Cultivate a friend and you will learn its priceless heritage. Cultivate a whole garden of them, and you will have what material wealth cannot buy. When all other assets in life appear to have melted away, the living presence of a few friends, or a garden of them, will still give to you hope and consolation. They will be near when most needed.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "For Love of Books."

REAL NERVE

I admire the splendid courage of the soldier in the strife
Who faces death undaunted and for freedom gives his life,
And I'm sure the aviator as he speeds across the sky
Is in every way a braver and a pluckier man than I,
But I sing the greater courage of the reckless youth and rash
Who braves the whole world's jeering while he's raising a mustache.

I have sat at times and marveled at some daring acrobat
And I've said as I applauded: "I would never tackle that."
I have seen brave men and fearless risk their precious lives for pay
And I've wondered at their courage, courage, but I rise right here to say
That above these mighty heroes that across our vision flash,
I place the nervy brother who is raising a mustache.

I might in times of danger risk my trivial neck to save
A brother from disaster and a sad and early grave;
I might some day go flying in an airplane through the sky (Though I doubt it at this writing, for I have no wish to fly);
I might try some bold adventure for a bit of fame or cash—
But I lack the nerve that's needed to attempt a cute mustache.

SAYS TRUMAN LEFT TERRIFIC SPENDING LOAD FOR IKE'S TERM

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen Taft of Ohio said today the Eisenhower administration has been saddled with a "terrific burden" of proposed long-range military spending in its efforts to balance the budget.

But he and Sen. Millikin of Colorado, chairman of the conference of all Republican senators, predicted that spending will be cut and an increase avoided in the 275 billion dollar legal debt limit.

"I'm sure we will not lift the debt limit," Millikin told interviewers. "If we went on the Truman budget we would have to increase it, but we're not going on the Truman budget."

Taft, GOP Senate leader, said the public ought to know "just what a terrific burden was left to us by the Truman administration" with its spending plansas represented not only in the $78,600,000,000 budget former President Truman sent to Congress for the year beginning July 1, but in five-year planning for military outlays.

Supplementing this, Chairman Bridges (R-NH) of the Senate Appropriations Committee said there is a possibility that Truman underestimated spending for the next year by 2½ billion dollars. That would put the prospective deficit, by Truman's figures, at over 12 billions.

The New Hampshire senator said he understands the military services plan to spend—out of money already voted them by Congress—2½ billions more than Truman estimated.

Peak Next Year

Taft said Budget Director Joseph M. Dodge, at a White House briefing for congressional leaders yesterday, had outlined the long-range military spending plans of the Truman regime and estimated that if they were followed the national debt would rise to 300 billions in 1958.

That would require an increase in the present 275 billion dollar debt limit, a move the Eisenhower administration is determined to avoid.

Under these Truman plans, Taft said, military spending would not reach its peak until next year and would then taper off with a budget balanced at 63 billion dollars in 1958.

2 Red Attacks Are Repulsed On War Front

SEOUL (AP)—Outnumbered Allied soldiers, fighting in the haze of Communist smoke shells, beat off two Red attacks on a Western Front outpost in a bitter, bloody clash early today.

The Reds attacked behind a curtain of more than 1,000 rounds of punishing mortar and artillery fire. Some were smoke shells that hampered Allied observation and cast a thick haze over the area for hours.

In the relentless Allied air war U. S. B29 Superforts roared to within five miles of Manchuria in the early morning hours and dumped 110 tons of bombs on a Red communications and supply center.

Allied fighter-bombers roared out a few hours later and bombed Red rail lines and supply centers throughout North Korea. U. S. Sabre jets, screening the aerial blows, damaged two Communist MIG15s, the Air Force said.

The Superfort target area had been scouted by reconnaissance planes, whose pilots reported heavy vehicular activity.

The U. S. Eighth Army today confirmed that warplanes "presumed to be" Allied killed three U. S. soldiers and wounded five Feb. 2 in a mistaken bombing behind the U. N. lines in Western Korea. The bombed unit was a battalion headquarters of the U. S. Seventh Division.

'SUPER CABINET' RECOMMENDED IN CHESTERMAN REPORT TO FINE

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Chesterman Committee has proposed a "super cabinet" as a buffer between the governor and department heads on state government activities.

Under the plan, nine operating administrations would be named to group related operations and unburden the governor from "an intolerable situation" of having 42 different administrative officials reporting directly to him.

"The total accountability of the state government has grown to more than a billion dollars a year, including borrowed funds and monies received from federal taxing authorities," said the committee.

Big Business — Big Burden

"This is big business as well as a big burden on those who must provide those funds and it is imperative that functions be so organized that the manifold responsibilities of government can be discharged in a business-like manner."

The Chesterman Committee, headed by Francis J. Chesterman, Philadelphia, was named last year by Gov. John S. Fine to study possible economies in state government.

Fine will make a report to the Legislature Monday on the committee's work which so far has proposed 78 millions in economy suggestions.

Better Coordination

Setting up an administrative organization between the department heads and the governor, the committee said, would not only reduce the number of officials reporting directly to the executive but would "achieve better coordination of related functions."

As an example, the committee said, a proposed new health and welfare administration would embrace the Health Department, the Welfare Department and the Bureau of Rehabilitation now in the Labor and Industry Department.

"Each of the affected departments would continue under the direction of a responsible, qualified secretary," the committee emphasized, "but instead of reporting directly to the governor, the department heads would report to the health and welfare administrator."

Basic Suggestions

The composition of the nine basic operating administrations suggested by the committee follows;

1. Public Education Administration—The Department of Public Instruction (less administration of the solicitation act, the Pennsylvania State Board of Censors, the Bureau of Professional Licensing and the School Employes Retirement Board); the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission.

2. Works Administration, embracing all activities incident to the planning, construction and maintenance of state highways and works—Highway Department (less the division of Highway Forestry), Construction Bureau now in property and supplies; State Planning Board; Division of City Planning and Landscape Architecture now in the Department of Internal Affairs.

3. Health and Welfare Administration—Department of Health (less milk sanitation), Department of Welfare, including a revitalized Bureau of Institutional Management; Department of Public Assistance; Bureau of Rehabilitation now in Labor and Industry.

Other Groupings

4. Labor and Industry Administration—Department of Labor and Industry (less Bureau of Rehabilitation); Bureau of Weights and Measures now in Internal Affairs; and the Department of Mines.

5. Finance Administration, including all functions associated with the collection, custody and disbursement of state funds, which are now lodged in the Treasury Department, the Department of Revenue and the State Tax Equalization Board.

6. Law Administration, consolidating all activities relating to the interpretation and enforcement of the law, as in the federal government's Department of Justice, which are now assigned to the attorney general, the Pennsylvania State Police, the Board of Parole and the Board of Pardons.

Completing List

7. State Administration—the present State Department, the Department of Military Affairs, State Council of Civil Defense; Department of Banking; Insurance Department; the School Employes Retirement Board now in the Department of Public Instruction; and the Bureaus of Land Records and Municipal Affairs now in the Department of Internal Affairs.

8. Agriculture Administration—present Department of Agriculture; Milk Control Commission; bureau of Milk Sanitation now in the Department of Health.

9. Conservation Administration—Game commission, fish commission, Department of Forests and Waters, Division of Highway Forestry now in the Department of Highways; Sanitary Water Board now in the Department of Health; and topographic and geologic survey now in the Department of Internal Affairs

NATO COUNCIL MARKS MONEY FOR RIDGWAY

PARIS (AP)—The NATO Council in a surprise move has promised Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway 224 million dollars more for 1953 European military construction — money it denied him last December. Now the council has to figure out which country will pay how much.

Allocation of the additional 224 million — matching the same amount approved at the council meeting last December—was announced last night by Lord Ismay, British secretary general of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The new allotment gave Ridgway, NATO's supreme commander, a bonus. In December he said 428 million dollars was the minimu mneeded for 1953 construction of air bases, jet fuel pipelines, communications and headquarters installations in Western Europe. The council then allocated only 224 millions.

Ismay said the council had not solved the important problem of how to split the new allocation among the NATO members. "We are trying to avoid the sordid business of bargaining around the table," he added.

Says Mining Industry Is Menaced By Gas

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A coal company official says the state's mining industry is menaced by unregulated high pressure storage of natural gas in underground pools.

W. L. Affelder, vice president of the Emerald Coal and Coke Co., told a meeting sponsored by the Greene County Coal Operators Association Wednesday that gas firms have stored many billions of cubic feet of gas under mines. He added:

"This is not a competitive fuel battle but a movement to make mines a safer place to work. I want it understood that we, as coal operators, are not opposed to gas storage."

An official of the Equitable Gas Co. said storage of gas presents no more of a hazard than producing wells.

OPEN HALL OF RACING FAME

DETROIT (AP) — Auto racing's newly organized Hall of Fame on Thursday opened its doors for the first time to receive the names of ten of the sport's pioneer greats.

Among those lected to the Hall of Fame, located at the Edison Institute in Greenfield Village, were such early racing greats as Barney Oldfield, Louis Chevrolet, Ray Harroun and Henry Ford.

Ralph Thomas, president of the American Automobile Association, and Col. Arthur W. Herrington, chairman of the AAA contest board, announced the ten candidates last night at a dinner honoring the hall and its first tennants.

In addition to Oldfield, Chevrolet, Harroun, and Ford, representatives of the auto industry, the press, and auto racing elected Bert Dingley, Carl Fisher, William K. Vanderbilt, Harvey Firestone Sr., T. E. (Pop) Meyers, and Fred Wagner.

Of the ten, only Meyers, Harroun, and Dingley are alive. Meyers at 79 is still active in auto racing as a vice president of the Indianapolis Speedway.

PITTSTON, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Bertha Blond, 80, was burned to death Wednesday when her dress caught fire while she was preparing supper for her son.

West Pittston Police Chief Worthy Hood said Mrs. Blond's dress apparently was ignited by a flame from the kitchen stove. Her body was discovered in her bedroom, where she evidently ran in an effort to treat her burns.

WHITES MARK ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. John D. White Sr., Kentland, Indiana, will observe their golden wedding anniversary on February 22. Mr. White, a son of the late Charles and Martha Pierce White, Brook, Ind., and Mrs. White, the former Mary Sell, daughter of the late Raymond and Rosa Ellen Klinefelter Sell who was born in Adams County, were married on February 26, 1903, at the country home of Charles White. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Cornelius McKain.

Mrs. White is the sister of Mrs. Alverta H. Weaver, Miss Florence V. Sell and Sterling L. Sell, Littlestown; Mrs. Bertha Sell Reindollar, York, and Lester Sell, Glen Burnie, Md., and has numerous other relatives in Adams County and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. White are the parents of five children, Beneta, now Mrs. Harold Whaley, and Darold, of Brook, Ind.; the latter's twin brother, Harold, deceased; Kenneth and John White Jr., both of Kentland. Various members of the family have visited their relatives here frequently during the years, the most recent in August of 1952. Mrs. Weaver and Miss Sell also visited the Whites in Kentland last year. The couple has ten grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mr. White, a retired farmer, is 70 and helps his sons with the farm work. Mrs. White is 71 and is able to do her own work.

The anniversary celebration will begin with a turkey dinner at the Country Inn, near Kentland, for the members of the immediate family and invitations have been issued to friends and relatives at home and in this vicinity, to attend open house at the White residence from 2 to 5 o'clock on Sunday afternoon.

AT BANKERS' MEETING

Wilbur A. Bankert and Chester S. Byers, from the Littlsetown State Bank, and Arthur E. Bair, Ray T. Harner, Albert J. Bair and Frank E. Basehoar, of the Littlestown National Bank, attended the meeting of the Adams County Bankers Association held on Wednesday night in Biglerville.

Firemen Called To Fire In Field

Volunteer members of the Alpha Fire Company No. 1 answered a call at the property of Clyde W. Crouse, one and one-half miles from Littlestown off the Littlestown-Taneytown Rd., on Thursday at 10:45 a.m., when a small field fire was caused by burning debris. The only damage reported was to a few poles used to support television antennas. Mrs. Crouse told the firemen that she was burning waste in a container and had returned to the house when she noticed smoke. She said she kept the blaze from spreading to a nearby garage with water from a garden hose. The two trucks which responded to the alarm put out the fire with water from booster tanks.

BAKED CASH WITH CAKE; BUT IT'S OK

MAPLEWOOD, N. J. (AP)—If she'd known what was coming, she'd never baked that cake.

Mrs. Marge Moretti spent a few anxious days after she put her cake in the oven. She had forgotten that she had $1,600 in cash, stocks and bonds tucked away in there.

Only a charred wad remained of her life savings. But everything finally turned out all right, because she learned Wednesday that she'd get it all back.

Congressman Helped

The cake-and-money baking incident happened Sunday. Her congressman, Rep. Robert W. Kean (R-NJ) heard about the minor tragedy, and had his secretary see what could be done.

The secretary brought Mrs. Moretti to Washington Tuesday and took her to the Currency Redemption Division of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

She handed over the blackened bundle of cash and securities. Experts soaked it in a tank of water, and a machine peeled off the layers. The experts identified $297 in cash.

Mrs. Moretti's Miracle

Mrs. Moretti was delighted. "Why, that's more than I thought I had," she exclaimed as they handed her crisp new bills in exchange.

Next, the government bonds were identified well enough for replacement.

Then Wednesday, the company in which she held stock informed her that they would reissue her certificates.

A happy Mrs. Moretti telephoned her boss to ask for another day off so she could show the sights of Washington to her 11-year-old son Alfred. She is a widow. It took her four years after her husband's death to accumulate the savings.

"Mrs. Moretti's Miracle" is what she calls the episode.

Littlestown Gives $1,122.13 For Polio

Mrs. Charles W. Weikert, chairman of the Infantile Paralysis Committee in the Littlestown area, expressed appreciation for the "unprecedented response" to the appeal for contributions to the March of Dimes Fund. An unusually high incidence of the disease and expences of an expanded research program had depleted funds of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis so that there was an urgent need for generous contributions.

Littlestown contributors swelled the fund by a gratifying $1,122.13, a larger amount than has been donated in any previous drive. This amount includes the contributions of 76 sponsors, those who gave $5 or more. Additions to the sponsor list include: Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars; Ladies' Auxiliary to the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post, VFW; Redeemer's Reformed Church Sunday School; Mothers' Sunday School Class of St. Mary' Reformed Church, Silver Run. The outstanding contributions of three local organizations are worthy of special mention: Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226 gave $278.75; the Littlestown Lions Club, $50, and the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, VFW, $35.34.

Leister, chairman, Warren C. Harner, Paul L. Hollinger, Paul R. Snyder, Theron W. Spangler and Roy D. Renner or from any of the following, Robert J. Stonesifer, John D. Basehoar, Marvin F. Breighner and P. Emory Weaver. The program committee for the anniversary celebration is composed of Arthur E. Bair, chairman, Stanley B. Stover, Chester S. Byers and Wilbur A. Bankert.

EVEN THE MUFFLER DOES THINGS TO THE POWER

BACK in the old days, any man who wanted real performance used a "cut-out" on his car.

It was a device that by-passed the muffler—because mufflers have always cut down on usable power. But it made a lot of noise.

Muffling that noise—and still getting rid of exhaust gases as fast as they come from the cylinders—has stumped the automobile people for years.

Now, Buick engineers have racked up another "first."

They have come up with a muffler of supreme quiet and zero power loss—first time in history.

It is called a dynamic flow muffler. And it is one of many advances that make the great 1953 Buick ROADMASTER even greater.

For this automobile—the greatest Buick in fifty great years—has a brilliant new V8 Engine that can turn up 188 hp. And every one of its horsepowers can be delivered as usable power—since none is restricted in muffler passage.

As you would expect, there is more to this magnificent motorcar than power, great though it is.

There's a still finer ride, better maneuverability, easier handling—now with Power Steering as standard equipment, and Power Brakes optional at extra cost.

CUSTOM BUILT BY BUICK

And there's the amazing new Twin-Turbine Dynaflow bringing quieter, jet-fast getaway to complete and utter smoothness.

Why not come in and see for yourself just how great the greatest Buick in half a century really is?

CONQUERING DECEIT

Matthew 22:15-22; 34-40

Key Verse: No man ever spoke like this man. John 7:64

The Pharisees did not like Jesus. At first they thought He was a mere upstart. But as He gained in popularity they decided He must be curbed. Several times they put hard questions to Him hoping to embarrass Him. But Jesus answered by asking another question and turned the occassion into an opportunity to teach important truths.

Who were the Pharisees? They were a religious sect, sticklers for laws and traditions. Among them were some good men but mainly they were self-righteous and hypocritical. Recall the two men praying in the Temple: The Pharisee boasting about his righteousness; the publican confessing his sins. Although defeated several times, they were certain that now they had a question which would give Him serious trouble. It had to do with taxation. The Jews lived in a country which was a province of the Roman Empire. They were taxed. The system of collecting the taxes was unjust. The empire demanded a large amount. The collecting of it was given to the highest bidder. The collector then added to the amount to be gathered as much for himself as the traffic would bear. Naturally the Jewish people smarted under such a burdensome system. Anyone engaged in it was hated and decidedly unpopular.

This was the question with which the Pharisees hoped to "entangle" Jesus! "Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?" If His answer was "yes," Jesus would become unpopular with the Jews. If it was "no" the Jewish people would like it but the Romans would consider Him a traitor and likely take His life. Surely they had Him this time, the gloating Pharisees thought.

Confounded The Deputation

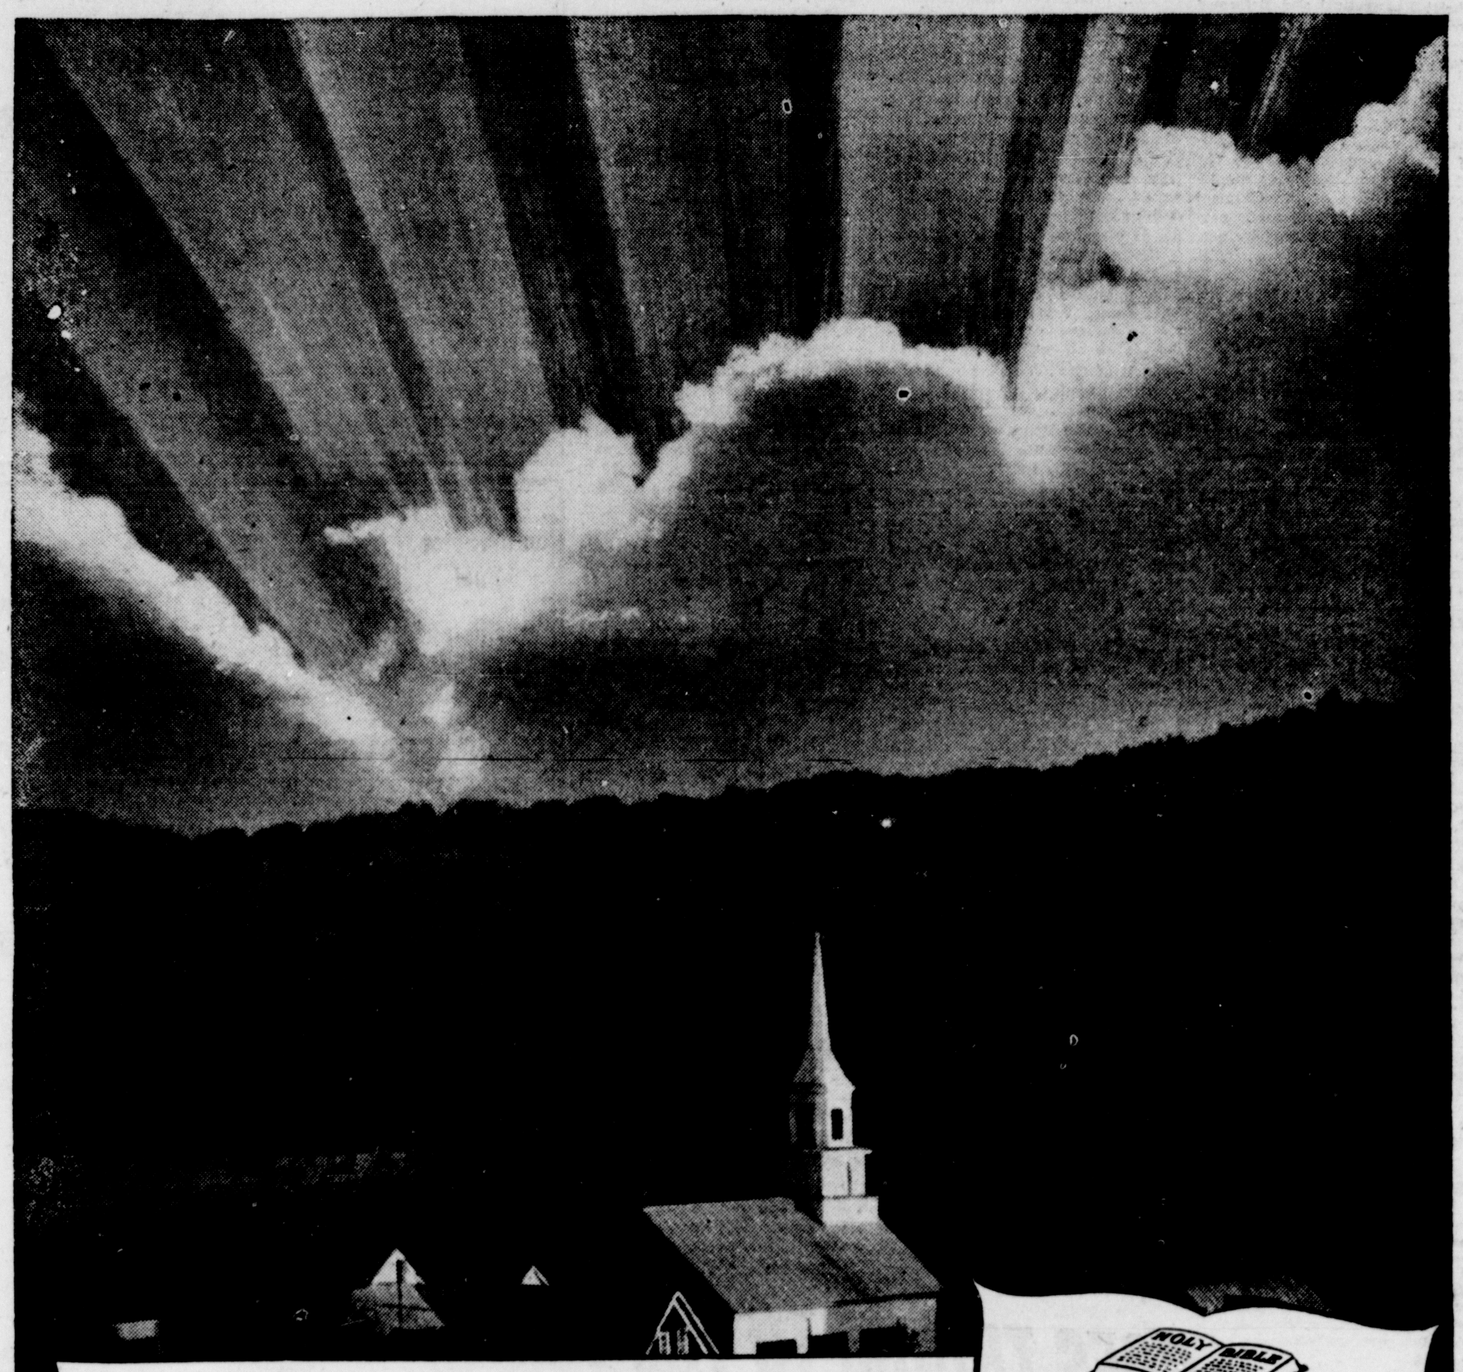

But Jesus had a question to ask. Calling for a coin He asked, "Whose likeness and inscription is this?" The answer: "Caesar's." Then His reply: "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's." That statement confounded the deputation sent to Jesus and they went away. Down through the years that reply has been quoted when religious or church relations with a state was discussed. It is possible that Jesus was not laying down a principle which would govern all relationships between church and state. It was taxation about which He spoke. There are areas of life in which both are interested and can be mutually helpful. This especially is true where the people have a voice in their government. This the Jews did not have under Roman rule.

Another question was asked in the portion of Scripture we are discussing today. It was asked by a lawyer and probably in good faith. It is not certain that, as in the other question, the purpose was to "entangle" the Master. The question: "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?" Instead of repeating the Ten Commandments as given to Moses, Jesus gave the principle which governs them all. It is love. It is the love which God first revealed toward man, and which man in return shows toward God. "We love Him, because He first loved us" (I John 4:19). That love for God is followed with love for one's neighbor, which means everyone. Jesus' answer is actually a summary of the Commandments. For, when genuine love is in control the individual Commandments are obeyed.

This love demonstrated by the early Christians was a new element by which they set out to win the world for Christ and they succeeded in a large measure. Their overflowing love was observed by one Roman scholar: "They love

THE LONG ARM OF THE CHURCH

The Church reaches far in touching the lives and hearts of men everywhere. Its arm is long. Its protection is sure.

The Church is responsible for thousands of hospitals, colleges, and other service institutions. Its missions extend into city slums and to the distant corners of the world. As an agent for the relief of suffering, promoting spiritual education, and contributing to better living, it has no equal.

Can you afford not to have a part in what the Church is doing to spread truth, promote good citizenship, stem the tide of juvenile delinquency, heal the sick, and minister to destitute peoples.

No short-range view of the Church can do it justice, for each separate congregation is one link in a vast chain of enterprises for human betterment.

It is fine to have a part in such a project. It is a duty to one's family and to God to accept a part of this responsibility.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

DEMOCRATS SEE WINNING ISSUE IN FARM PRICES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats displayed quiet confidence today that they have found an issue which may win them the 1954 elections and perhaps lay the basis for a return to national power in 1956. Many Republicans take issue with that appraisal.

The issue is falling farm prices and the views of Republican Secretary of Agriculture Benson, which Democratic lawmakers assert are opposed to high-level, mandatory price supports.

GOP Senate Leader Taft of Ohio conceded Wednesday that "if the Republicans don't do better than the Democrats did in the last two years" in checking farm price drops, "we probably will lose the next election."

But Taft scornfully added this should not be a hard task because, he said, "under the Democrats, farm prices have been going down for the last two years."

The Agriculture Department, meanwhile, reported an advance in hog prices and officials there cited it as evidence supporting their contention there is a firm foundation under the agricultural situation.

A department market survey showed prices of hogs paid producers on eight major Midwestern markets have gone up an average of $1.76 for 100 pounds since mid-January. That is about 9.7 per cent. Further, the department said, hog prices on those same markets now average about $2.65 for 100 pounds above those of a year ago.

Attacking Benson

Democratic congressmen made no secret of their plans to continue the sort of drumfire attacks on Benson which followed a controversial speech the secretary made last week. Some Democrats contended Benson indicated little sympathy with present farm price support programs.

Democrats from farm states say they already are getting letters from dirt farmers attacking Benson, some demanding that he be fired.

Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark) came to the floor Wednesday with a 3,000-word speech sharply critical of Benson's utterances as secretary. Taft remained on the floor for Fulbright's talk and repeatedly engaged in heated exchanges with him.

TO VISIT WHITE HILL

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Gov. John S. Fine's prison investigating committee will meet at the White Hill Industrial School near Harrisburg next week.

The group recessed yesterday after visiting the Morganza Training School in Washington County. So far the committee has inspected six state penal institutions.

each other without knowing each other." And Tertullian, a church father, in upbraiding the pagans wrote: "Our compassion gives more in the streets than your religion in the temples."

Applied love has won countless persons for the Kingdom of God. It also has had its influence on the state by releasing "a great fund of altruistic feeling" as sociologist Benjamin Kidd has said. We may count on the love of God and of man to help us out of the distress of a bewildered world.
